ACTIVITY
INTERVIEW ANSWERS

Using your Interview Talking Points Activity, outline your answers to the various different interview questions you may be asked.

We are going to cover several types of interview questions. As each question type is introduced in the videos, you will do a portion of this activity.

5 Most Common Interview Questions

Directions: After learning what to include in your answers for each of these questions, outline your answers here.

Tell me about yourself.

Tip: Autobiographical information, talking points, briefly why you're interested in the position

What are some of your strengths?

Tip: No more than 3

What are some of your weaknesses?

Tip: Listen carefully, did they ask for a weakness or some weaknesses? If some provide 2

Why are you interested in this position?

Tip: Don't sound desperate here, "I just need a job."

What questions do you have for me?

Tip: Have 2-4 questions prepared to ask

STOP HERE and watch the next video lesson

Behavioral Interview Questions

Directions: Using the STAR answer format, compose answers to the following two behavioral interview questions.

#1 Tell me about a time when you analyzed data to solve a problem.

S-Situation:

T-Task:

A-Action:

R-Result, what was the outcome:

R-Result, what did you learn from the experience:

#2 Describe a time when you failed to achieve a goal you had set for yourself.

S-Situation:

T-Task:

A-Action:

R-Result, what was the outcome:

R-Result, what did you learn from the experience:

STOP HERE and watch the next video lesson

Creative, Unusual Questions

Directions: Answer these interview questions.

If you could have any superpower what would it be and how would you use it in this position?

If you were given $1 million dollars to solve one issue or problem in your local community, what would you focus on and why?